10. Review of City Facilities Sign Project Draft Renderings

The city is working on a plan to update all city facility signs with Confluence Inc. As part of the process, we'd love the Arts Commission to give feedback on a few final drafts. The current signs have been in place for thirty years. We anticipate the next sign format also needs to serve the city for at least the same amount of time so timeless, classy, with a recognizable element to carry throughout has been the focus of discussions to date. Confluence will review scope of project and drafts for feedback from the Arts Commission.
